the writings collected here all testify to the complexity of gunnars s literary vision as much as they testify to the sheer pleasures of reading her work in her interview gunnars speaks both as a reader and a writer describing the form and modes of address of her work as well as the philosophical and literary traditions she draws from the nine essays and two poems that follow organized chronologically according to the publication dates of the primary texts they treat represent a broad range of approaches to kristjana gunnars s work the contributors are m travis lane judith owens janice kulyk keefer deidre lynch stephen scobie anne malena siobhan o flynn k i press and christl verduyn it is my hope that readers will find in this critical community some productive points of entry into gunnars s corpus that will stimulate their own thinking about her words and ideas from the introduction by monique tschofen

is it possible to capture something as ephemeral as love with mere words méira cook draws on lacan derrida barthes and kristeva to wrestle with the theoretical problems of representing the unrepresentable in writing lovers she searches for a language adequate to articulating the discourse of passion desire and longing in the love poetry of dionne brand elizabeth smart daphne marlatt dorothy livesay kristjana gunnars and nicole markotic in writings by the french post structuralists rhetorical tropes such as speechlessness fragmentation and deflection testify to the writer s difficulty in broaching the subject of love similarly cook shows that love poetry proceeds out of a profound failure of language resulting from the opacity of discourse its lack of neutrality or the fugitive transparency of reference writing lovers also explores race ethnicity age and sexual identity within the context of the passionate excesses of amatory discourse
